

May we, as we stand this day face to face with the possibilities of our life's journey give ourselves and our loved ones the gift of forgiveness. May we put down our heavy burden as we stand here at the water's edge. May we cross the border and enter the promised land facing the future with a new lightness and a new freedom.

May this day be for you ... a truly moving day. ✦

✦

Amen.