DID YOU KNOW?

END-OF-LIFE CARE
CAN FEEL DAUNTING
AND CONFUSING,
BUT IT DOESN'T HAVE TO BE THAT WAY.

I'M HERE TO HELP!
TOGETHER
WE CAN SHIFT
THE NARRATIVE.

THIS BOOK IS DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF THE PEOPLE OF KOLIN

A Jewish community first took root in Kolin in the late 15th century. At that time the community commissioned the writing of a Torah. In 1942 the Jewish community of Kolin saved their Torah by sending it to Prague. The Torah was saved and is a centrepiece of our Ark. The community of Kolin perished.

A MESSAGE FROM THE CLERGY

During the High Holy Days, we hold a spiritual meeting with the loved ones we have lost. Opening this book, knowing that the names of your loved ones are here, is an act of confronting that pain. We lean into the pain, reopening the wound, sharing it with our community. While our pain is personal, we experience comfort in our communal gathering.

The truth that emerges from this pain is that while our loved ones may pass, our love does not die. We are the witnesses who carry the love forward to the next generation. Love is the legacy that brings us comfort and that we can all share.

PSALM 23

The Shechinah, a sheltering presence, makes me whole... causing me to rest in green fields, leading me to calming waters, replenishing my soul, and empowering me to make life-affirming choices in celebration of God's name.

Even though I have walked in darkness and known loss, I have not despaired, for you are with me. Your guidance and your nurturing spirit have sustained me. You have set a full table for me when i have been hurt and alienated.

You have conferred upon me unique potential, which I strive to realize. From the deep core of my being, I am overflowing with gratitude. I know that your goodness and loving-kindness will continue to abide within me, and i will live out my days in God's house.

Phyllis A. Bass

WE REMEMBER THEM

In the rising of the sun and in its going down,
We remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
We remember them.

In the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
We remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer,

We remember them.

In the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of the autumn.

We remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends.

We remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength,

We remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart.

We remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,

We remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs.

We remember them.

So long as we live. They too shall live,

For they are now a part of us.

As we remember them.

*To everything there is a season
A time for everything under the sun,
A time to be born and a time to die,
A time to laugh and a time to mourn*

*This is a time we gather to remember someone who gave meaning to our lives.
This is the time we recall the bonds
That hold us, the love we shared,
the memories that sustain us.*
